SOCIETY FOLK AT MONCREIF

RACE FOR GENTLEMEN RIDERS ATTRACTS BIG ATTENDANCE TO COURSE.

Much Enthusiasm Shown When Tommy Wright Pilots Ballot Box to Well-Earned Victory-New Track Record Established.

Jacksonville, Fla., January 25.—A race for gentlemen riders was a feature at Moncreif Park this afternoon and brought out a large gathering of society folk to the new course. The attendance equaled in point of numbers that of any week day since the meeting opened and much enthusiasm was manifested. Tommy Wright, who came down from Baltimore to ride Ballot Box. carried home with him lonight a handsome silver punch bowl service which went to the rider of the winning horse. Ballot Box was second choice in the betting and won because he was best ridden. When the break came he was off ia front and was immediately taken to the inside and, hugging the rail at every turn, saved much ground all the way. In the stretch Ballot Box was tiring and was driven to the limit to stall off Ben Double's bid.

The course was in excellent condition and a track record was established when Pantouffe ran six furlougs in 1:12. Only two favorites won, the successful choices being John Carroll and Abrasion.

Thirty-four layers again quoted odds. Speculation was keen and the books won on the afternoon's transactions.

Charles Walters and his crew will leave for Juares in the morning to book for the remainder of the winter. Among the new layers that drew in this afternoon were Columbus Jones and George Linden.

J. W. Burttschell announced that he would conine his efforts during the coming season to developing jumpers and he will dispose of Cooney K. and Schleswig at auction on Saturday next.

Jockey Butwell signalized his return to the saddle after an absence of a month by landing Royal Onyx winner over a band of fast sprinters in the third rece.

GOSSIP FROM THE EAST.

New York, January 25.—The liberality with which corge J. Long, J. T. Ireland, C. C. Van Meter, Miller Henderson and Frank G. Hogan have made nominations for the Sheepshead Bay and Gravesend stakes of 1919 indicates that those western horsemen are going to race in the east the coming summer. Mr. Van Meter has nominated his Woolsthorpe gelding, The Fad, in half a dozen stakes at Gravesend and Sheepshead Bay, with Topland, a son of Orlando, and Topsy Over.

Barney Schreiber is not apparently counting on sending Jack Atkin to the stud at Woodlands, notwithstanding his declaration at the beginning of the winter meeting at Jacksonville that the son of Sain would be retired to the stud this year, Jack Atkin is in the stable that John Powers is training for Mr. Schreiber. He has started only once at Moncreif Park, but he is in excellent condition and Mr. Schreiber has named him for many of the minor handicaps to be run at Gravesend and Sheepshead Bay during the summer. As long as Jack Atkin keeps sound there is no reason why he should not continue to race. Mr. Schreiber has no hamediate need of his services at Woodlands, Sain, still a young horse, is as vigorous as need be.

Maskette is wintering satisfactorily at James need of his services at Woodlands. Sain, still a young horse, is as vigorous as need be.

Maskette is wintering satisfactorily at James Rowe's barn at Sheepshead Bay and bids fair to train soundly for her 1910 engagements. The great brown daughter of Discuise and Biturica is in much better condition than she was a year ago. Maskette will have to contest this senson in handleaps with matured racers. It is up to Maskette to win one of the great mile and a quarter handleaps if she is to make good her right to be rated with limp. Artful and Beldame. Imp won the Suburban of 1899; Beldame took the Suburban of 1905, and Artful, while still a three-year-old, defeated Ort Wells and Beldame in the Brighton of 1905.

TAMPA RING AGAIN HARD HIT.

Tampa, Fia., January 25.—Losses that the books have been experiencing right along here were mild compared with today's. The sharps Jumped on the winners in each race, especially when they thought the price overlaid. Clysmic and Warner Griswell were mediums of plunges that cost the ring heavily. Both were at unexpectedly long opening prices. The sonly break in the layers' favor came in the opener, when the uncertain Alauda succumbed to Okenite. Weather conditions were again ideal and a big crowd was on hand. The sport was healthy and furnished spirited struggles. Tamar's victory was achieved in sensational fashion. She propped at the start, which almost caused her to be left, and was forced to go around her opponents. Crowding in the race was responsible for the falling of Bob Ayers and the fracturing of jockey Carroll's collarbone.

Jockey T. Koerner was the whole thing during the afternoon in a riding way. He had the mounts on Tamar. Warner Griswell and Ormuz, The latter showed a flash of his old-time form in romping away with the purse in the closing dash. The condition race went to Warner Griswell, at present in extra good form. Among those he beat were Southern Gold and Sir Catesby. The latter is rounding into condition and will be hard to beat at a considerable distance. Southern Gold also raced impressively and will show to better advantage in future starts.

Another batch of arrivals came from Jacksonville today, including the horses of D. Hammond and jockeys Franklin and T. Harry.

Jockey Steinhardt was suspended for ten days by the starter for disobedience at the post in the fifth race.

T. P. Hayes was offered $1,200 for his two-year-old colt Oracle, by James Frayling, but the offer was declined.

JOHN MACKEY TO SELL OUT.

Woodland, Cal., January 25.—John Mackey, veteran Yolo County turfman and for many years manager and confidential agent of J. B. Haggin, is retiring from the stock business and is selling his lands and horses. His horse farm between here and Knights Landing has been disposed of to W. B. Jennings.

nings.

Mr. Mackey has shipped some of his great stallions to Kentucky to be sold. Canopus and Galveston are among these. Thirty of his thoroughbreds will be sold in California. Mr. Mackey is over 76 years old and it is reported that he and Mrs. Mackey will go to New York to live.

EARNINGS OF THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN STABLES DURING THE PAST SEVEN YEARS.

The net results of the racing of 1909, so far as they affect the list of the thirty leading money-winning American owners during the period of years in which Daily Racing Form has been compiling the statistics of such winnings, included the displacement of T. P. Hayes from the list to make room for William Walker and a re-arrangement of the relative standing of those fortunate persons who go to make up the "big thirty."

James R. Keene continues to head the list with the magnificent total of $1,389.851 to show for the achievements of the formidable collection of racers of his own breeding that have carried the Keene colors so successfully during the years covered by the tabulation. Harry Payne Whitney continues to hold second place, which he gained one year ago, but he is in imminent danger of losing it to S. C. Hildreth, who, during 1909, advanced from tenth to third position, and who is likely to have a more formidable stable in training in this country during the present year than is Mr. Whitney. Barney Schreiber, who, at the previous publication, figured as the principal western owner in the list retains fourth place and is but little behind Mr. Hildreth in stable winnings during the seven years that the compilation embraces. Sydney Paget, who for several years figured as Mr. Keene's chief rival for the leadership, has been relegated to fifth place. August Belmont has dropped back from fifth to sixth place and leads John E. Madden by only a narrow margin. Then come R. T. Wilson, Jr., and T. Hitchcock, Jr., the latter of whom added an insignificant amount to his total during the year just ended.

Of those whose names still appear in the list, but who were not represented on the turf during 1909, Captain S. 8. Brown is dead, Sydney Paget is in England, Burlew & O'Neill are in France, while E. R. Thomas, Edward Corrigan, C. R. Ellison, John A. Drake is to resume activities the coming season, however, with a stable of two-year-olds of his own breeding. The list of the fortunate thirty follows:

THIRTY LEADING WINNING OWNERS OF 1910.

For a time at least H. G. Bedwell is the undisputed leader of the winning owners of 1910 and has made a very good start in his campaign of this year with fifteen races won from January 1 to January 24, inclusive. It is worth noting that the industriously campaigned Bedwell stable has already started twenty-seven horses in races this year and among this big band some very good ones. Next to Bedwell, Phil Chim has so far been most conspicuously successful and is far in advance of the St. James Stable and Barney Schreiber, which come third and fourth respectively. As in other seasons of the sport, winter racing is now far less lucrative in its returns than it was a few years back, when the California and New Orleans tracks provided stakes and purses that compared quite favorably with those to be won at the great summer tracks. But owners are thankful to take what they can and, everything considered, are not doing badly at all. So far the sums to the credit of the thirty leading owners are as follows:

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING HORSES OF 1910.

Righteasy, the filly that H. G. Bedwell has transformed from a cheap selling plater to a racer of stake calibre, by virtue of a series of successes at Juarez, heads the list of money-winning horses for 1919 to date. Her lead over P. S. P. Randolph's Patsy and J. H. Brannan's Booger Red, the second and third horses in the list, is slight and the outcome of a single stake of importance on any of the winter tracks may have the effect of bringing a new leader to the front at any time. Both Patsy and Booger Red have been racing at Jacksonville and it is unlikely that Patsy, whose development into a stake winner has been one of the features of the Jacksonville meeting, will figure in actual racing in the immediate future, for the reason that he has recently suffered a severe sickness. Silver Knight, a frequent winner at Oakland, is a close fourth, while Jack Parker, Glorio and Lady Irma are others whose achievements have given them a prominent place in the list of the thirty leaders, which is as

JOCKEY MAKES A MISTAKE

MOLESWORTH COMES IN FOR SEVERE STRIC-TURE AT JUAREZ TRACK.

Boy Eases Servile to Permit Winning of Feature Race of Day by Stablemate and Knight Deck Beats Them Both.

El Paso, Tex., January 25.—Servile, with Molesworth up, was leading his stable companion, Orbicular, and four others by a winning margin in the final sixteenth of the mile feature at Terrazas Park today when, nearing the finish, the boy duplicated his irregular tactics of a week ago and began easing his mount to allow Orbicular to pass him in the final strides. Both of the Johnson & Gray horses were caught napping and were headed right on the post by Knight Deck, on which Jockey Shilling rode one of his whirlwind finishes.

Molesworth escaped reprimand last Tuesday when he eased Servile to permit Orbicular to win only because with both horses filling the premier positions, wagers on them singly or combined were not affected, whichever finished first. Today backers of the entry to win and Servile for place had a serious grievance, for by the illegal practice of pulling one horse of an entry to alow the other one to win without having made a declaration to that effect before the race, they were muleted out of their money.

It is possible that Bedwell's gelding would have won today in any event, but certainly Servile had second place at his mercy. The race itself was not truly run, as there was much crowding and jostling throughout the running. The struggle was not only unique as a spectacle, but was a thriller throughout. The whole quintet ran closely bunched through the stretch and the proverbial blanket would have covered them at the wire. No exaggeration is involved in the claim that Shilling could probably have won on any one of the five.

THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

Following his fashion of last year. V. Powers is leading the jockeys of 1910 in number of winning mounts and is riding with great skill and vigor at Jacksonville. But, as was the case last year, his formidable rival, Shilling, exceeds him in percentage, and that is the real test of skill in horsemanship. Indeed, in that feature, Deavenport ties Powers. However, the season is young and the real racing of 1910 is yet far away, so that jockeyship records in January may have no great relation to the ultimate figures of the year. Up to and including last Saturday the records of the thirty leaders were: Mts. 1st. 2d. 3d. Unp. P.C.

BLUE GRASS FARMS CHANGE HANDS.

Lexington, Ky., January 25.—Fletcher Driver, sonin-law of Thomas H. Stevens, owner of Walnut Hill
Stud, today bought the farm of 248 acres of the late
Edward Ayres, near Spring Station, Woodford
County. Mr. Driver will take possession March 1, and will establish there a thoroughbred stud of his own. Mr. Stevens has sold Walnut Hill Farm to R. R. Early, of this city, and will sell off all of his possessions with the exception of his thoroughbred horses, which include the stallion Wadsworth, a number of broodmares and young racers. He has not decided as yet where he will locate Wadsworth and the mares, but he will continue to race the youngsters, Mr. Early will devote the farm to agricultural uses.

uses.

Trainer "Bub" May left here this morning for Douglas Park, Louisville, with his string of eighteen two-year-olds. Sixteen thoroughbreds, six the property of W. H. Fizer, five owned by Captain Jim Williams, four belonging to John S. Ward and one owned by H. S. Overton, will leave here temorrow afternoon for Jacksonville. In the Williams string is the two-year-old half-brother to Waldo. "Wink" Williams will train him.

TARDINESS IN CLAIMING NAMES.

New York, January 25.—Though the time expires for the naming of two-year-olds March 1, the claiming of names has not begun to be what it should be at this late date. Horsemen are guilty of procrastination in many matters, but in the question of selecting a name for a colt or a filly it is important that claims be made for the reason that in many instances a name chosen has already been claimed and it makes necessary the choice of another.

Another preliminary to the racing season is that stables must register their racing colors on or before March 1. Though there are several hundred colors to be registered each year, there have been less than a dozen named for 1910. In the matter of licenses to train and for the jockeys, the time is not as short, but, like the other imperative duties of the horsemen each season, they are being delayed unnecessarily this year.

PARI-MUTUEL MOVEMENT ON COAST.

The announcement that the trotting horse men are to affiliate for the purpose of taking steps to get a law passed at the next session of the legislature to allow pari-mutuel betting has caused considerable gossip among the followers of thoroughbreds. The men who would not listen to pari-mutuel betting displacing the bookmakers a year ago are now advocating the mutuel system of betting and the followers of the turf who have its welfare at heart declare that it will be the salvation of the sport,—San Francisco Call.

GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS COUNTRY.

Louisville, Ky., January 25.—Preparations are being made at Douglas Park for the reception of the racing strings of W. J. Young and J. W. ("Bub") May. Both will have pretentious racing establishments for their 1910 campaigns. In the Young string are Mesmerizer, Gallant Firate, Fereno, Nannette and a big bunch of two-year-olds, some of which were highly tried as yearlings last fall. May will reach here tomorrow with eighteen horses, principally two-year-olds that are owned by the eastern firm of the millionaire horsemen, M. L. & A. C. Schwartz, Young will have a string of eighteen head.

Schwartz. Young will have a string of eighteen beatd.

The youngsters May will bring here are among the highest-priced yearlings sold in the eastern market last season and are all around as promising a bunch of two-year-olds as were ever trained in one barn in Kentucky. They are by fashionable sires and mostly out of mares that have previously thrown brilliant racers. May is a trainer who has been especially fortunate with two-year-olds, having trained no less than three winners of the much-prized Flatbush Stakes in Highball, Yankee Consul and De Mund.

Jack Baker will not have the Latonia Oaks winner.

"Latonia, twenty-six days, from May 12 until June 2.

"Latonia, twenty-six days, from June 4 until July 4."

The famous race mare. The Slashes, the last member of the celebrated Ashland Stud of the late John M. Clay, youngest son of the great commoner, Henry Clay, died a few days ago near Lexington, at the age of twenty-eight years. At the time of her death she belonged to Mrs. John M. Clay, who, when she sold out her thoroughbred stud, retained the noted mare as a relic of her late husband's once great breeding plant, from which came the great Kentucky, the Kentucky Derby whiner, Day Star, and scores of other celebrated horses. The Slashes was by Glenelg, out of Skedaddle, by Yorkshire, and her granddam was the remarkable Magnolia, one of the greatest of all the matrons of American race horses. The Slashes left in Mrs. Clay's possession a daughter, Virginia Lafayette, and a granddaughter, a filly out of the latter mare. The aame conferred on this mare by the late John M. Clay indicates how he regrarded her as a prospective race mare, as his distinguished father early in life had been styled the "Mill Boy of the Slashes," and in all his years of breeding horses he had never conferred the name on a horse until Skedaddle dropped the great mare that has just died. Clay thought to his dying day that wiff good training luck the turf would have known no better mare than The Slashes, but though she was a good winner she never showed to the public the high form her eccentric breeder believed she possessed, though she earned an honored place in turf history as the last good race horse to come from his remarkably successful breeding stud.

J. Hal Woodford's big band of two-year-olds, which were broken last fail at Lexington by lockey George Monatain, as well as the Bourbon County turfman's older horses, will be trained this season, with one exception, by John Walters. The exception is the Kentucky Derby candidate, Eye White, a partnership horse, which will be fitted for his engagement in that big race by W. H. Fizer, who

J. Hal Woodford's big band of two-year-olds, which were broken last Tall at Lexington by jockey George Mountain, as well as the Bourbon County turfman's older horses, will be trained this season, with one exception, by John Walters. The exception is the Kentucky Derby candidate, Eve White, a partnership horse, which will be fitted for his engagement in that big race by W. H. Fizer, who trained the son of Yaukee as a two-year-old, The three-year-olds Walters will have in charge for Woodford will include Jack Straw, Hallack and My Gal, and among the Woodford two-year-olds is a half-brother to the Latonia Derby winner, Pinkola, This colt is by the dead stallion, Captain Sigsbec, the sire of Martin Doyle, Cottentown and other good performers.

J. L. Donnelly has succeeded W. H. Snyder as manager of Hamburg Place. Donnelly was formerly pight watchman at that noted stud.

LINCOLNSHIRE AND ASCOT GOLD CUP.

LINCOLNSHIRE AND ASCOT GOLD CUP.

The great handicaps annually decided in England in the course of the spring and early summer racing closed for entries January 2 and nominations made have been published. The Lincolnshire Handicap, the first highly important race of each year, received fifty-five entries, of which the American-breeds are Mr. Whitney's Belirium and Persens, Mr. Winan's Sir Martin, Mr. Beimont's Norman III. and Mr. Prentice's Wamba. Mr. Keene has no nomination; in fact, not a single one in his behalf has been made to any of the big list of events that closed. Christmas Daisy, winner of the Cambridgeshire, Mustapha, Valens, The Tower, Dean Swift, The Story, Arvanmore, Hayden and last year's winner, Duke of Sparta, are among the fast horses entered in the Lincolnshire and Sir Martin will be almost, if not actually, the top weight.

The star of last year's racing. Bayardo, is evidently to be given an active campaign, but outside of nominations made for him prior to this year, does not appear in the entry lists of any race to be decided before June, his name first cropping up in the Coronation Cap, at a mile and a haif, which is to be run at Epsom April 20; Kempton Jubilee Handicap, to be run at Epsom June 2. Then it follows in the rich Ascot Gold Cup and other big events at Ascot. The King's Derby winner, Minoru, appears earlier, he being in the City and Suburban Handicap, to be run at Kempton Park May 7; the Coronation Cup and Ascot Gold Cup.

Winner—B. g. by Watercress—Linda Vista (trained by E. Christian).

Went to post at 4:58. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the Lighthouse was patiently reserved in nearest pursuit and drew out midway of the stretch to win journey and was pocketed in the last furlong by the two leaders and probably was best. Fantastic quit badly. Hughes was never dangerons. Pocotaligo was nearly left. The winner, entered for $300 do 0.5500 by W. S. Hamilton and bought in.

Scratched—87450 Bonnie Prince Charlie, 109.

Overweights—Lighthouse, 4 pounds; Hughes, 4.
